ABSTRACT:	Brandon Brown (1993-) is an American professional racing driver, who has raced for NASCAR. Brown won his first race, the Sparks 300 at Alabama's Talladega Superspeedway, on October 2, 2021. This win became notorious when NBC Sports reporter Kelli Stavast's misstating of a crowd chant led to "Let's Go Brandon" becoming a political slogan used against U.S. President Joe Biden. ¹ The collecting card references this win but makes no mention of the newfound political phrase.
ACCESS RESTRICTIONS:	The collection is open for research.
