The annual reports of the Ford Motor Co of Canada for the years 1951-1952-1953. Areas covered within each report include: sales, prices and costs, profit, taxes, disposition of earnings, working capital, other assets, fixed assets, employment, defense production and overseas operations. Within each report also is a balance sheet and comparative balances for the preceding year.