OVERVIEW

Copied photographs and documents subseries, 1890-1980 (41.2 cubic ft.), is comprised of negatives and prints of copies of documents and photographs. The copies of documents, known as the "D" file, are photographic copies of letters, telegrams, jottings, legal papers, advertisements and other material relating to Henry Ford and the Ford Motor Company as they were needed for publication or reference use. Primarily a negative file, there are some prints filed with the negatives. The copied photographs, known as the "O" file, are negatives and reproductions of historical photographs reproduced from both internal and external sources.

CITATION

"O" file of copy negatives, Accession 1660, Copied photographs and documents subseries, Photographic vertical file series, Archives (Ford Motor Company) photographs subgroup, Ford Motor Company photographs collection, Benson Ford Research Center, The Henry Ford.

LOCATION

When copy photographic prints exist from this subseries, they are filed by subject headings in Accession 1660, Photographic vertical file series and cataloged in EMu as P.O.XXXX.

DESCRIPTION INFORMATION

Inventory converted from hardcopy to PDF electronic format in November 2014 by Brian Wilson, using contents from two binders located in the Benson Ford Research Center Reading Room. Overview, citation and location information published in 2004, and updated and republished in 2014 by Brian Wilson.
